To My
Dear Darling--
Tracy,

What's up? I didn't decide to write, I felt I had to write you to express my feelings over these last 2 <sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> months. Wonderful! This is the word which really tells the story. I mean when ever I'm with you, or talking to you, or thinking of you, it's always wonderful. I know I don't know nothing about you, but the more I get to know you, the more I Love you.  Love, that's a word I've tossed around alot in relationships, but it seems since I've met you, I know the

GEN
true
meaning of it.
Tracy, the way I feel towards you, really is hard to put on paper. One reason is because my love grows more and more each day. And your family, they've been great to me, I will always have a special place in my heart for them also. So to sum things up I've really enjoyed having you in my life, <sup>and still do</sup> because with you, my life would not be complete. Tracy LaShawn Stay sweet, pretty, and most of all, mine.
Love Always and forever,
Brian

Tracey,

It has been your great knowing for almost a year. I hope our friendship will last forever. I remember the first time you came to my house and we talked for six hours.
I also remember the home from the mother brought me. Before she dropped Billingsworth game. Before she dropped me off we went to Shoney's have enjoyed your whole family. Thank for all the M's you brought me. You are a dear friend.
I forgive you for trying to make me mad in P.E. (Remember). I have many sisters and you are one of them. See you this summer.

Love,
Angela

Help me in

Memories can be beautiful and golden. What makes this a special book is its portrayal of our lives in school. This yearbook is more than an historical account of a year in our lives. It represents what we are, what we hope to be, and ultimately the ties between our past and future.

As we look at this book it will remind us of those special days we had at Brewbaker Junior High. This is not a sad book, but one of joys and happiness. It should be cherished, for golden memories are not the end but the beginning of our future.

FUN TIMES

The fun times at school are among the ones we'll never forget. Often they seem to be our best times. For most of us they have varied from pep rallies to football games to activities within the classrooms. We all have stored memories of many such unforgettable times this year at the great BJH!

Through the year we've experienced fun times at school that can never be erased from our minds. Some of these memories are recorded on these pages, but most of them are preserved in the minds of the people who experienced them.

HAPPY TIMES

... the cheer of the crowd at a pep rally ... the winning touchdown for the Cougars ... the smiles of friends in the halls ... These are the happy times we remember. They reflect our golden moments and overshadow any disappointments or loneliness

PRIME TIMES

We've all experienced those exciting times that occur throughout the year. They can be at a football game or at a pep rally, in class or at a dance. It doesn't really matter where we are. We always have that special Cougar spirit that makes even an ordinary event a prime time.

A Year of Spirit

The week of Homecoming was busy and full of excitement as we nominated candidates and voted for Miss Brewbaker and her attendants. All of us hurriedly piled into the gym for the September 27th pep rally. We cheered with the cheerleaders and applauded the drill team's performance while we anticipated the announcement of the winners. Anxiety mounted as Mrs. Sikes introduced the escorts and the attendants. As the pep rally ended, Diana Ryder was crowned Miss Brewbaker 1986.

BREWBAKER DAY

GOLDEN TIMES

The entire student body was on edge waiting for the announcement of the Homecoming elections. After voting in homeroom, the winners and their escorts were announced.

Seventh grade attendants were named first — Cha Cha Pinkston escorted by Fred Bibb and Stephanie Ryder escorted by Grant Foster. Then eighth grade attendants, Julie Banton and Regina Williams, were introduced, and they joined their escorts, Jake Marshall and Kevlon Galloway. Tension increased as Mrs. Sikes named the three ninth grade winners and their escorts walked them to their seats. Bridget Palmore was escorted by Michael Ross, Kelley Phyfer by Keith Brantly, and Diana Ryder by Billy Merrill. Traci Vaughn, Miss Brewbaker 1985, came forward and crowned Diana the new Miss Brewbaker. Tears flowed as friends rushed forward to congratulate the girls. Diana and her court were presented Saturday at halftime of the Homecoming game against Floyd and honored at the dance that night.

All of us have special memories of this exciting week whose Golden Times will never be forgotten.

SERIOUS TIMES

Many of this year's most cherished memories are centered about the classroom. Because of the guidance and leadership of our administration and faculty, we have many golden memories to savor. We have stored images of special moments this year. Without our teachers, many of these would not have taken place. Each teacher shared a unique style and personality and worked with us to make Brewbaker Junior High number one. By listening to us, advising us, and helping us grow, they are a part of this unforgettable year.

Young, excited, wishing, hoping.
 Shy, immature, barely coping.
 Always on time and teased a lot.
 Backpacks, classes, and lunches brought.
 Fine arts, C-team, pep rallies, clubs.
 Dances, lockers, life science, subs.
 Old friends, new friends, having good times, Drawing on hands, always in line.
 Six subjects and changing classes.
 Dressing for gym, huddled masses.
 Essays, projects, and book reports.
 Spelling, history, science, sports.
 All of these are memories of our 7th grade year.

SCHOOL DAZE

School plays an important part in our lives. We have been in school most of 1985-1986. The memories of this school year will stick with you; the important ones will last forever. But sometimes everybody needs a little something to bring them back. Pictures remind us of how things were and how they happened. Pictures such as these — the fads, the people, the wild and crazy memories — will be remembered. Hopefully you will never forget the school daze.

SPECTACULAR TIMES

When something special happens during the school day, we get so excited we may call it spectacular! Anything that's different or even something that's unexpected — like not having to take a test — is great. Sometimes even when the electricity goes out we call it spectacular because it breaks our regular school activities. The 1985-1986 school year definitely has been full of spectacular times!

VARSITY FOOTBALL

This was a very exciting year for the Varsity. They won all their games but two. Before the game against Goodwyn, Coach Spaeth said, "Goodwyn will be our toughest opponent this year." And they were. Our losses to the Warriors and to the Cloverdale Tigers kept us from going to Crampton Bowl.

Even though the Varsity was not number one in the city, they're still number one to us.

OLD TIMES

In your old age you can dig out this yearbook, blow off the dust, and feel that special cougar feeling tingle through your fingers as you open to the first page. A kind of magic returns and you want to shout, "Go Cougars! Go!" These pictures will help to bring back those memories and special times that occurred at Brewbaker during the 1985-1986 school year.

GOLDEN MEMORIES

The Golden Memories
We've had this year,
The feeling that they'll Always be near,
Have made up this book
That you should treasure
So the Brewbaker Spirit
Will live forever.

— Justin Holbrook

Tracy, its been nice knowing you this year. The year went by so fast bc I'm ~~ready~~ <sup>ready</sup> for her high now. I wish you all the luck in the world Reach for your heights, and I know you'll make it.

Love ya

Tracy,

Spanish has been great. It would have been really boring without you. You are just too cool for me.
It's been fun picking on you through the years. Well, I'll leave some space.
Love ya like a bro.

Mike
Young.

So Tracy.

Go a different type of kid. But though we've been together for a year, Alaska became young and restless. But those are the days of our lives. While you and Ryan go into another world.
 Oh I'll come wait for you in Santa Barbara.
 We may be pretty far apart, but I have a better friend!

My friend What if the time has come for us to say good-bye to this pasture & all to our friends. You have been a supper in my life. I kinda hate to say good-bye to you over the summer. But remember, no one can keep you from going to see it again. Maybe in a year at F.O. I'll see you at the year at F.O. I'll see you at the one class together. But remember, no matter what you do, the best bless you. Stay in control of your life. What I'm trying to say is has to leave. Well, what I'm trying to say is the stars. Well, what I'm trying to say is got a good head on your shoulders (sometimes) you and Brian's relationship expands to its highest to him. I think it's a swell dude. Until J.U.

Hold on to hope that you're smart, you're reaching for all the world will always go you over the good the world
reaching for you're
hope that

FUN

Hi Celia, Well, it's been a great year. I have enjoyed you this year very much. Even though you've got on my last nerves, I still love you like a sis.
 That's an honor! Ha! I want you to know that I think of you as a sweet, crazy, nice, kind, nutty, sarcastic, and inter-ligent friend of mine who keeps smiling and reaching for success. Take care!
 Love you
 friends forever, Angela

Tracy,

Hey sweetie!

Well Mr. Baldwin's class has been on one big trip.

That fight between Shanum & Derrick is really something to remember. Well have a great summer and stay the sweet & beautiful girl you are.

Love ya,
Kellie Y.

Hey Babe,
What's up?
Not much here, just wondering what has been happening to our relationship (friendship).
I thought that we were best friends but something is happening. I know this kinda sounds like a letter but I'm going to keep on writing. We used to do everything together. We were just about joined at the hip.  But now we are disconnected. I wish, and I hope you wish for it to be like it was. I've appreciated everything you did your family have done for me. Remember Me Always
Hopefully, I'll see you at J.D.
If you don't leave town.
Love  bunches,
Simone
